Option 2: In-House Full-Day Event or 2 Half-Day Virtual Events

The Nomadic Mindset Journey to High Performance

Full Day Live Event

'It is not your skills, talent and competences alone that creates high performance, it is the mindset that drives your them to be used efficiently and effectively.'

- Kevin Cottam

This highly interactive journey event goes deeper into the understanding and implementation of your mindset assessment results as the catalyst for growth. You will go through stages, first starting with you the individual, then the team and followed by the organisation. At each stage of the workshop you will be mapping out the mindsets, behaviours, skills, and strategies needed to move forward faster and more efficiently towards higher performance levels related to what drives you. By the end, organisational and personal-action planning will help you complete the journey road map.

2-Part Virtual Event

The virtual event will be divided into 2-Half-Day workshops with interactive functions such as polls, chats, break-out rooms, and white-boards. There will be two short breaks as being online can be rather long at the best of times.

Part 1: Discovering and mapping the individual and team

Part 2: This will focus on mapping the organisation and developing strategies and action planning by focusing in on integrating the behaviours typified with the nomadic mindset into business culture
