About the Global Nomad,

Kevin Cottam

Leadership Coach, Professional Speaker, Author

Kevin Cottam, believes people are becoming too narrow in their mindsets and to survive and thrive in Industry 5.0 and 21st C. organisations, change and expansion is vital! The magic of a coach and a professional keynote speaker is to encourage this expansion, by removing the barriers in the mind to allow possibilities to flourish.

"We are migrating. Where we were is not where we are; we are evolving."

- Benson Munterer, Maasai

Having migrated, lived and worked as a coach and speaker on four continents; from the ice rinks of the world as a former elite choreographer of world and Olympic figure skating champions and director of multimillion dollar skating productions (e.g. 1988 Calgary Olympic Closing Ceremonies); to coaching executives in the public (EU Institutions) and private sectors; to speaking on the stages of conferences, boardrooms, and training rooms for multinational enterprises; Kevin has attained cultural insight, awareness, and stories that enrich his inspirational speaking and coaching.

He leverages his more than forty years of a diverse and expansive life to build, grow, and encourage leaders to lead masterfully with a deeper whole awareness of themselves and their organisation's dominant mindset.

His colourful and insightful journey researching the ancient nomadic wisdom in Mongolia, the Maasai in Southern Kenya, and Berbers of the Sahara in Southern Morocco as well as interviews with over 100 executives, is the center-point of his coaching and speaking and compiled in the fresh image and story-driven leadership book, The Nomadic Mindset: Never Settle...for Too Long. You will be transported on a thought-provoking, and transformative journey to expansion.
